Why work with IQ:

Focused on the detection and evaluation of child Giftedness in the context of ANADEIXI, a team of volunteers based in Greece. The team activities include a personalized academic enrichment program, professional guidance, psychological support and counseling for the children and their parents and entertainment options, all based on their specific needs, interests and talents. Currently, a medical doctor, general adult psychiatrist, working to empower and benefit people and society targeting, advancing and promoting giftedness.

I believe in the power of human mind and my works contribute to the facilitation of mind expressions, promotion of creativity and enhancement of productivity for a better life quality for everyone. Maximizing outcomes based on the appreciation and utilization of people's potentials for the benefits of any individual and humanity in general. Offering better options for a better life quality to ourselves and the next generations.

Statement for the World:

Know, appreciate, respect and be yourself. You are the most important human being in your life. Anyone, and especially a gifted, intelligent and highly capable one, should focus on feeling alive, improving his life quality, extending his understanding of the outer and self-awareness, enriching his experiences, promoting human values, creating, producing for and contributing to a better world and better conditions for anyone. Humans are biological beings, life is a mystery, creation is still unknown. We live a miracle and we can only maximize this miracle's impact in every single moment of our existence.
